

South Texas Electrical JATC - ELECTRICAL APPRENTICE Program

Apprentice Monthly Work Progress Report

This report is basic evidence of your participation in the apprenticeship program. Careful completion each month is essential to maintain registration and progress from each step to the next.

South Texas Electrical JATC
2503 Blanco Rd
San Antonio, TX 78212

REPORTS are DUE on the 1st of the MONTH

Name:

Address:

Instructions: Enter the hours you worked for each category, for each day, of the month. If you are unsure of your category of work make your best choice or ask your supervisor.

Monthly Total:	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
Project Layout and Planning
Underground Installations
Thinwall Conduit Raceways
Rigid Conduit Raceways
Installing Services
Floor Duct
Motor Control Centers
Wires and Cables
Cable Tray
Lighting System Installation
Feeders, Motors & Branch Circuits
Fire Alarms
Motors
Control Systems
Programmable Logic Controllers
Instrumentation and Process Controls
Security Systems
Sound & Communications
Transformers
Fiber Optic Cable
Welding & Brazing
Services & Troubleshooting
Material Handling or Prefabrication
Other Specialized Area
Injury-Illness-Medical Personal
Scheduled Vacation
Totals

NOTES